A Workshop by PhRMA Foundation, University of Rochester and Georgetown University

Tuesday, September 23, 2014
9:00am – 5:00pm

Pew Conference Center
901 E Street NW
Washington, DC

The objective of this initiative is to enhance Regulatory Science by understanding the requirements and demands of federal agencies, industry, and academic institutions, to allow U.S. universities to provide tailored educational and training paths to prepare young scientists, current researchers, regulatory reviewers, and others to engage in this exciting field. Ultimately, the goal is to catalyze efforts to grow a well-trained, highly skilled pool of Regulatory Scientists.
